

Dr. MCR HRD INSTITUTE, GOVT. OF TELANGANA

Press Release

Dr. MCR HRD Institute Rolls out Telangana Orientation Program for Officers of Four Districts

Dr. MCR HRD Institute of Telangana organised a “One Day Reorientation and Capacity Building Program for District Officers of Mahabubnagar, Nagarkarnool, Wanaparthy, and Jogulamba Gadwal Districts in the Context of Telangana” on June 17th 2017.

Sri S. Niranjan Reddy, Vice Chairman, Telangana State Planning Board, in his Inaugural Address, said that the Government has launched a number of mega development and welfare projects in order to fully meet the aspirations of the people. He called upon employees to contribute their optimum best to take these projects to the shore, safely and successfully. He stated that the Government is employee-friendly and advised them to reciprocate by working more than what is expected of them.

Sri A K Goel, IAS (Retd.), Advisor to Government for Planning & Energy, in his Special Address, lauded the achievements of the Government in such domains as irrigation, health, and education. ”Mission Kakatiya is an excellent flagship program of Government of Telangana, which will revolutionise water resources utilisation, bring in total transformation in agrarian economy, and alleviate problems of rural poor”, he said and added that the present growth trajectory will enable Telangana to emerge as one of the top performing States in India in near future..

Release of “Know Your District-Plan Your District”. Sri E. Sridhar, IAS. Smt. S. Mohanty, IAS, Sri R K Saini, IAS, Sri B.P. Acharya, IAS, Sri A K Goel, IAS (Retd.), Sri S. Niranjan Reddy, Sri Ronald Rose, IAS, and Dr. Pingle.

Sri Niranjana Reddy addressing the participants. Sri E. Sridhar, IAS. Smt. Swetha Mohanty, IAS, Sri Rajat Kumar Saini, IAS, Sri B.P. Acharya, IAS, Sri A K Goel, IAS (Retd.), and Sri Ronald Rose, IAS

Sri B P Acharya, IAS, Special Chief Secretary to Govt. Planning & DG, Dr. MCR HRD Institute of Telangana, in his Presidential Address, said that the Samagra Kutumba Survey (SKS) data about one crore households across 94 parameters and the geospatial data about public assets provide a rich platform for formulating innovative plans based on the felt needs of villages, mandals, and districts. He added that the District Knowledge and Innovation Centres would emerge as think tanks for improving performance of district administration.

Sri D Ronald Rose, IAS, Collector, Mahabubnagar district said that working in watertight compartments has become a thing of the past. “The challenges that the officers face today have wider ramifications and a greater degree of interdepartmental coordination would be a win-win proposition for all stakeholders”, he added. Sri E. Sridhar, IAS, Collector, Nagarkurnool District said that employees must possess the required ability and right set of attitude to do the job. “Many a social problem calls for change in the mind-set of people, Employees, therefore, should create positive attitudes among them”, he added. Smt. Swetha Mohanty, IAS, Collector, Wanaparthy District said that the reorganisation of districts has started delivering the results in terms of a closer rapport between administration and people and effective delivery of benefits of different schemes to poor people. Sri Rajat Kumar Saini, IAS, Collector, Jogulamba Gadwal District said that imparting training to employees in the context of reorganisation of districts is the need of the hour.

Telugu booklets on “Know Your District - Plan Your District (mana zilla - mana pranalika)” for Mahabubnagar, Nagarkarnool, Wanaparthi, and Jogulamba Gadwal districts were released by Sri S Niranjan Reddy. Earlier, Dr. Gautam Pingle, Head, Centre for Telangana Studies welcomed. Dr.P. Lalitha, Consultant, CGG conducted proceedings of the program.