A final Good Bye to MCR....From the 87th FC Officer Trainees

Team Meetings late in the night,
Book lets that are never light,
Nitty-gritty, Integrity, Punctuality!
Classes begin sharp at time,
read the notices line by line,
PubAd, Management, Eco, law and ICT!

One thirty and run for the lunch,
Trek, Village visits keep us on the toes,

Lectures, Cultural and presentations
Activities as official as it goes

We all came to MCR!
It was worth the effort,
That it took to tame UPSC!
We all came to MCR!
Life was never boring

Events of 87th Foundation Course

Intra-group cohesion: Group of individual emerge as team

Trekking to Nilgiris

One of the most important events of the 87th foundation course was trekking which was conducted from 29th September to 07th October, 2012 in the beautiful Nilgiri mountains. All the OTs were divided into 8 different groups lead by a leader. Trekking started after a briefing session by district administration & forest officials at Ooty. After the briefing, all OTs were sent to their different starting points which were designed in a circular route so that all the groups move in a circle and cover all the destinations. After coming back, all the teams presented their experience & learning from the trek in the form of a presentation. Institute acknowledges Smt. Archana Patnaik IAS, District collector Nilgiris, Tamilnadu made elaborate arrangements made.

Village Visits

Village visit for the officers of 87th foundation course was conducted from 3rd to 10th of November, 2012. The purpose of the visit was sensitization of officers about the rural issues. The visit was conducted in 6 districts of 3 different states viz., Nanded from Maharashtra, Dharwad from Karnataka, Nalgonda, Adilabad, Cuddapah and Prakasam from Andhra Pradesh. All the teams did transact walk, PLA exercises, visited various institutions in the village as well and observed the planning & implementation of various schemes & programs at the village level. We acknowledge the efforts put in by the district administration for learning cause.

Bouldering, Hiking & Rappelling

The Adventure Club of 87th Foundation Course had conducted "Bouldering, and Hiking" event in a picturesque view of lakes and boulders at Shameerpet, on 24th November 2012, under the professional guidance of Great Hyderabad Adventure Club (GHAC). A total of 26 Officer Trainees, participated in the event. Another 36 OTs participated in rappelling. While the whole event was very exciting throughout, the most adventurous part was Chimney Exercise, wherein the Officer Trainees reached the top of two tall boulders, climbing through the narrow gap between the two boulders!

Events of 87th Foundation Course

Srijan - Cultural Festival

Srijan- A Cultural Program by Film & Fine Arts Club was organized on 19 November, 2012. OTs representing all parts of the country showcased the rich talent & cultural strength of the batch. The evening saw a terrific participation from all OTs with several cultural events including skits, mimes, drama, instrumental, duets, classical dances, stand up comedy and contemporary dance performances. The entire show gave the audience an insightful presentation of the rich culture of India.

Book review presentations for different groups were held on 30th & 31st October, 2012. There were a total 15 groups having different books from all spheres of life to review. All the groups submitted a hand written review report as well as presented the combined team work to all the OTs. The event was judged by Ms.Anuradha Goyal and Dr Deepa Nair .

Events of 87th Foundation Course

Homi Bhabha Debate

Homi Bhabha Debate was organized by the Society for Social Services & Contemporary Issues on 14th of November, 2012. As many as 46 OTs participated & debated on Climate Change effected India of the 2030: Heading for Disaster. The extempore skill to express themselves in a crystal clear manner helped them in communicating their point to the Audience. In a close contest, group of Ms. Divya Iyer & Ms. Anju Ravikumar won the event and were awarded the Homi Baba Rolling Trophy for Science, Technology and Environment for the best debater.

Fete

Fete was organized on 20 October, 2012 at the sprawling Arjuna Arcade. The Institute was lively and colorful with a variety of stalls put up by the officer trainees. Food Stalls were filled up with variety of food items like sandwiches, aloo chaat, bhelpuri, baked foods, sweets, ice cream and cool drinks. Few stalls also organized fun games which provided the much needed entertainment. Sri. Madhusudan Reddy IFS and Sri Suvarna Panda Das IAS inaugurated the fete.

Painting Competition and Photography Exhibition

A painting and photography exhibition was organized on 27th November, 2012. The officer trainees showcased their talent for the art through their paintings and photography. The exhibits included a series of paintings that explore themes of the unknown. Colorful drawings, and paintings from pastels, water colours, oil to wood, landscapes were on display. The Chief Guest for the event was Dr. Srikar Reddy, IFS, Regional Passport Officer, Hyderabad and Dr. Ullas Karanth a tiger conservationist who were at campus to give a talk on their respective projects. The winners are given prizes on club day.

Social Services by OTs Visit to Dialogue in the Dark

The OTs used their earnings from the fete, for distribution of essential materials to the inmates of State Welfare Home. Shawls were also distributed to house keeping women. It was a heart rendering occasion for all the OTs and the fact that they could help the inmates in a small gesture was highly gratifying. All of them carried back a message that a small help extended can make a great difference in the lives of the lesser privileged. The play items and note books are distributed in school.

On the 16th of September, 2012 the social services club organized a visit to "Dialogue in the Dark" a unique and innovative experience, the only one in India, where all OTs got a chance to experience, through a walk in the dark, how the visually challenged experience day-to-day life.

Heritage Walk

A heritage walk was organized for all OTs on 16th Sept., 2012. The walk started from the symbolic Charminar and ended at the grand Chowmahalla Palace of Hyderabad. OTs visited other historical places on the "Heritage Trail" in groups led by the guides of AP Tourism Department.

Rangoli Competition

In order to enhance creativity and unleash the hidden potential in team work among OTs, Rangoli competition was held on 21 October, 2012. Arjuna arcade became the cynosure of all eyes with colorful patterns of rangoli adorning the carpet area. The theme of the event was rural India and the OTs' imagination and creativity were at their best displaying variety of art depicting rural situations.

Millet Festival

A Millet based lunch with organically grown millets and vegetables was arranged on 21 October, 2012 to appreciate Sustainable Dry land Agriculture as a National Policy to augment Food Security and Balanced-diet, while simultaneously promoting Rural Livelihoods in arid zones. Millets festival was organized to promote these precious foods as Foods of the Future that address both the nutritional and climate crisis.
