COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF SCHEMES

SCHEMES	GOODIES	BADIES	CORRECTIVE ACTION	PEOPLES SATISFACTION
MNREGS	Construction of bunds, checkdams – lean period	Without work sometimes paid	Periodic checking of work required	Very good
IHS	Beneficial for SC, STs and 3 rd phase beneficiaries	Different phases with varied money allocation	Phases can be collaborated properly	Very bad
SHG	Loan given timely for sustenance	Not used for group activity	Creation of awareness for group activity /self employment	Very good
AAI	Getting food requirements	Low quality /Selling the extra food grains	-	Good

Revival of panchayat raj for faster development

CONCLUSION

There is vision, energy as well as willingness to succeed among the people of Tejapur village.

To channelize them in the proper direction , political will, support and efficient governance in the form of effective panchayat raj institution is required.

If one man can produce one ideal village , he will have provided a pattern not only for the whole country, but perhaps for the whole world.
