

GREEN WARS :
DISPATCHES
FROM A VANISHING
WORLD

GROUP 7

Group Members

- Abhishek kumar
- Balram
- Harisha Vellanki
- Karan Singh Tanwar
- Neetu K Thomas
- Nitika Pant
- Pallav Saxena (Coordinator)
- Rahul Kumar Parmar
- Rahul Singh
- Ravindar Kumar

Green Wars : Dispatches from Vanishing World

- Struggle between “neck – break pace of growth” and the “sustenance of natural resources” .

Author- BAHAR DUTT

- Conservation Biologist
- Environment Journalist
- Recipient of Wildscreen – Green Oscars

Ideology

- Middle Path
 - Development and Environment.

Purpose of the Author

- Debunking Myths
 - Environmentalism stalling growth
 - Higher growth leading to higher energy consumption by weaker section
 - EIA - Participatory
- Every activity undertaken – hidden environment Cost
- Realizing Priority – “Tipping Point”

Review

- Balanced and unbiased approach
 - Environmentalism and Conservation
 - Problems and Solution
 - Conservationists and Human Rights Activists
- Brings to fore – Stark and unpleasant reality - Implementation of environmental legislation
- Nature and pristine wilderness dealt emphatically
- Not just “Big species”, deals with small yet important links of Bio-diversity
- Appeals to emotion of the people

Strengths

- Reader friendly language
 - Lucid writing
 - Evokes mental pictures – easy to relate
 - Bold writing style
- Proposes solution and policy inputs

Weaknesses

- Only fauna covered
- Cliché notions
- Inappropriate Pictures
- More like a travelogue

Sources, Methodology and Approach

- Personal and Journalistic experiences
- NGO- Greenpeace..etc.,
- Social and environmental Activist , Biologist

PERSONAL EXPERIENCES:

89TH FC :: TREKKING

Recommend to :

- Environmental enthusiasts
- Policy makers
- Civil servants
- Industrialists and Miners
- Economists
- Any average citizen of the country

THANK YOU!!!