Style Guide

Authors are requested to follow the guidelines in the Style Guide as listed below. This will help reduce the processing time for article assessment by preventing the need for seeking clarifications or requesting for reformatting:

1) FONT/SPACING

For the main text, use Times New Roman, 12 point, 1.5 line spacing. For notes, use Times New Roman, 11 point, single line spacing. Set the alignment as "left".

Use British and "-ise" spellings (labour, centre, organise).

Use double quotation marks for quotations, and single marks for quotations within quotations.

Indent text of more than four lines, without quotation marks.

For quotations from other publications, always provide reference for the quotation.

2) In-text citations

Use the author-date system for citations.

Works cited in the text should read thus: (Brown 1992: 63-64); Lovell (1989, 1993).

For repeat citations: eg (ibid 75)

For groups of citations, order alphabetically and not chronologically, using a semi-colon to separate names: (Brown 1992; Gadgil and Guha 1994; Lovell 1989).

Use "et al" when citing a work by more than two authors, but list all the authors in the References (unless there are six authors or more).

3) References

All works cited in the text (including sources for tables and figures) should be listed alphabetically under References, on a separate sheet of paper.

Use endnotes, not footnotes.

The location of endnotes within the text should be indicated by superscript numbers.

For sources which have insufficient details to be included in the Reference, use endnotes (such as interviews, some media sources, some Internet sources).

See the following for style and punctuation in References.
